Dear [redacted]

STAT

Trying to express feelings of appreciation publically is most difficult, especially for me; so I want to take this opportunity to thank you again for the excellent support you gave me while I was Director, PBO. Upon leaving a job it is quite natural to want a first-rate operation such as PBO's to continue unabated. Your appointment as Director assures that the organization will continue its vital role with an even better performance than in the past.

Of course, there will continue to be challenges to be met such as reprogramming, execution in general and implementing new innovations in programming and budgeting. With the continued support of the excellent staff you will have no difficulty in accomplishing these tasks as we had done in the past with EO 11905, EO 12036, ZBB, CBJB's, etc.

Please pass on my best to [redacted] and all of the members of PBO. Thanks again, [redacted] and good luck.

Sincerely,
